DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1 – 3 and 6 – 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hill et al (2002/0048212).

Regarding claims 1 and 9, Hill et al disclose concrete mix design systems and methods comprising running one or more tests on the mix designs using computer controlled equipment (See Pages 5 and 6, Section 0052 and Page 6, Sections 0053, 0055 and 0063), digitally collecting data for each run using the equipment (See Page 5, Sections 0053 and 0054) and selecting an optimum mix based on the collected data (See Page 5, Section 0054 and Page 8, Sections 0084 and 0085).

Regarding claims 2 and 6, a communication port is turned on and off using a processor (See Page 2, Section 0023 and Page 4, lines 27 – 32).

Regarding claim 3, an operating mode is selected (See Page 5, Sections 0049).

Regarding claim 7, a new design is created using the mixed designs (See Page 9, Section 0089).

Regarding claim 8, data is uploaded to a computer (See Pages 5 and 6, Sections 0058 and 0060 and Pages 9 and 10, Section 0097).

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 4, 5 and 10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 11 – 20 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments with respect to these claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection.
